

The East Palo Alto Police Department is making available to the public its most current copy of the East Palo Alto Police Department Policies and Procedures Manual. A link to the manual is available on this webpage. Please note that, in accordance with state law, specific information in certain policies have been redacted to protect police investigative procedures and techniques, and police officer tactics.

For information related to the training received by our officers, please see the California Commission on Police Officer Standards and Training (P.O.S.T.) website at. <https://post.ca.gov>
